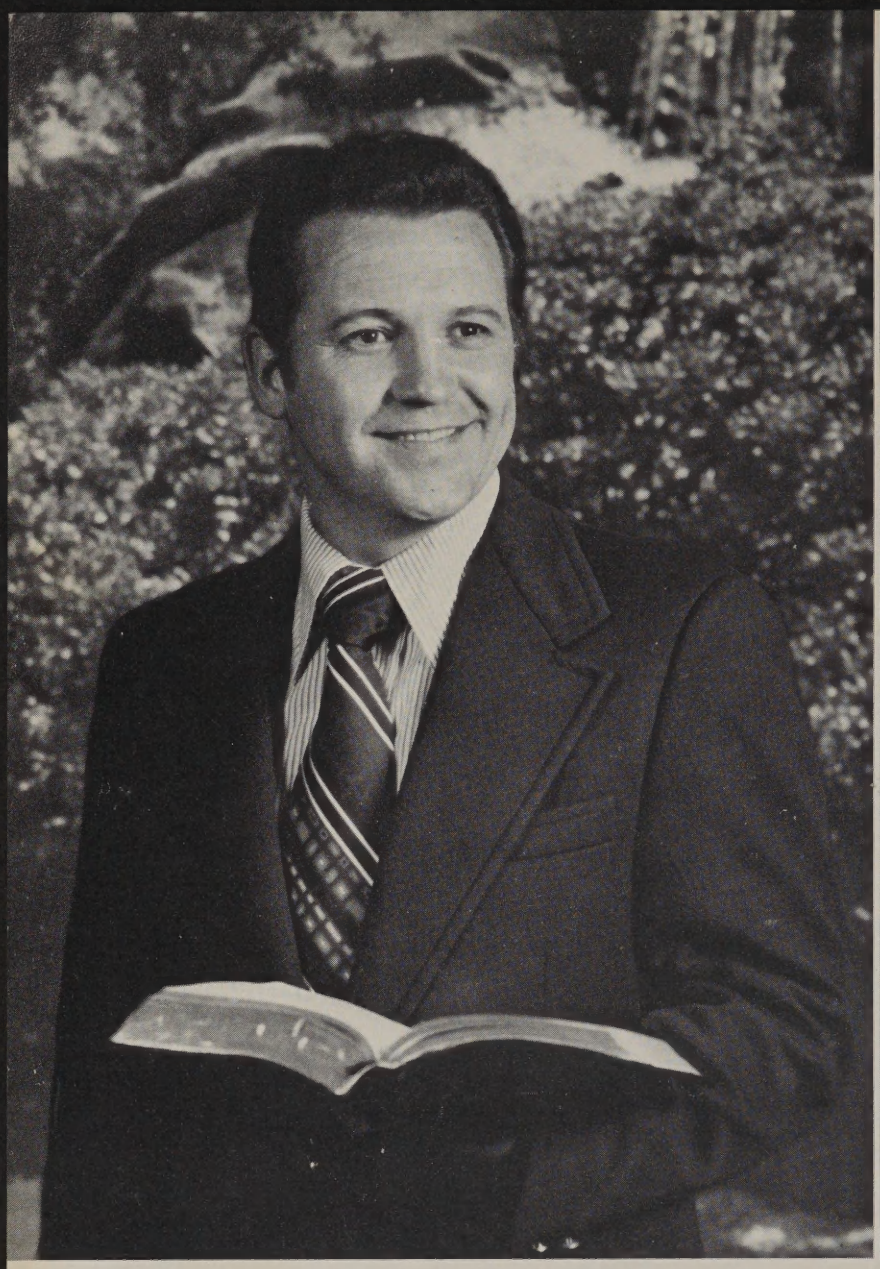
TABERNACLE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Tabernacle Christian School where Christ is magnified,
Where we learn that Jesus lives, although for us He died.
Finest training there we find with standards clear and true.
Tabernacle Christian School, praise God for you!

Conquerors for Christ are we; in His own strength we stand.
Guided by the Word of God, we live the lives He planned.
Trained to serve the King of Kings Who died on Calvary,
With the Sword, the Word of God, we have Victory!

—Ray A. Adams



DEDICATION
REV. RANDY SHOOK

The Lord has blessed Tabernacle Christian School with a very unusual man. In addition to his regular duties, he is willing to drive a bus, set up chairs, clear tables, and do many other "odd-jobs" which no one ever knows about. A man of many talents, he has directed elementary programs, acted in the high school drama, and supervised art projects for the Fine Arts Festival.

Besides all these activities, he and his wife, who plays several roles herself (wife, mother, teacher, K-3 supervisor), are the parents of five children who have literally "grown up" in Tabernacle Christian School. He is active in Tabernacle Baptist Church — teaching a Sunday School class, working on a bus route, preaching, and occasionally leading the singing.

We are most grateful for the consistently strong Christian leadership that he has brought to our school during its eight years. The emphasis he places on Biblical standards, positive attitude, cooperation and respect gives Tabernacle Christian School a special character.

In a day when taking a stand is not popular, we appreciate a man who does his part to see that "the trumpet give a CERTAIN sound" preparing young men and women for the battle. We, therefore, gratefully dedicate the 1978 TRUMPET to our principal, Rev. Randy Shook.

God is beside me to comfort and cheer.
God is around me, so why should I fear.
